Notes (#, Color, Type, Size)

Your Half-Pint's size changes by the minute, and each season has different needs, finding you scrambling for that last pair of rubber boots at the store (oh, goodness, and at full price!). If you're like us, you can never remember what you actually need. Sure, those are great plaid pants, but they won't get much use when all you have are striped tees.

Fill out this cheat sheet (add sizes, quantities, styles) and keep it with you so when you run across an awesome bargain, your Half-Pint's information and needs are at your fingertips. And don't forget to include your off-season needs. You'll find a better deal AND a better selection now than you will in a few months, I guarantee you that.

If only shopping for that perfect pair of jeans was this easy.
